

JANUARY

Happy New Year Kingdom Kid Families!
We are looking forward to God's blessings in 2012!

In January, we will begin talking about "What I want to be when I grow up". We will also be reviewing our classroom Kingdom Principles and just what it means to be a "Kingdom Kid". Please keep these themes in mind when helping your child select a book to share on Wednesdays or a show and share on Fridays.

We will continue paying tribute to one family each week. Please help us honor January's families of the week:

❄️ Quinlan Gwyther
January 9-13, 2012
❄️ William Medina
January 23-27, 2012

❄️ Jenna Langehennig
January 16-20, 2012
❄️ Chase Nichols
January 30 - February 3, 2012

As family of the week, you are invited to create a family poster to be displayed in the classroom, join your child at school for lunch one day during the week and care for our classroom 'pet' Winnie the Teddy Bear over the weekend.

As we start the new year, please be sure that your child has at least one complete change of clothes in their cubby that is weather-appropriate and that their blankets, pillows, sleep buddies, etc., get taken home to be washed regularly. Also, please help us keep the classroom clean and healthy by making sure that your child does not have any food or drinks in their cubby or backpack.

Thank you for all that you do to raise such wonderfully Sweet-hearted, happy children who are eager to learn, and thank you for letting us be a part of their early development.

May God richly bless you and your family in 2012.
Ms. Pam, Ms. Marie and Ms. Ashley
